BACRE VIE

Judi Allen

Dear Judy,

It's useless to try to name all the good times we've had together. You're one of the few people I'll always remember. It's been a perfect riot going to school with you. Always stay as sweet as you are now and you'll always have friends.

Love
Vicky

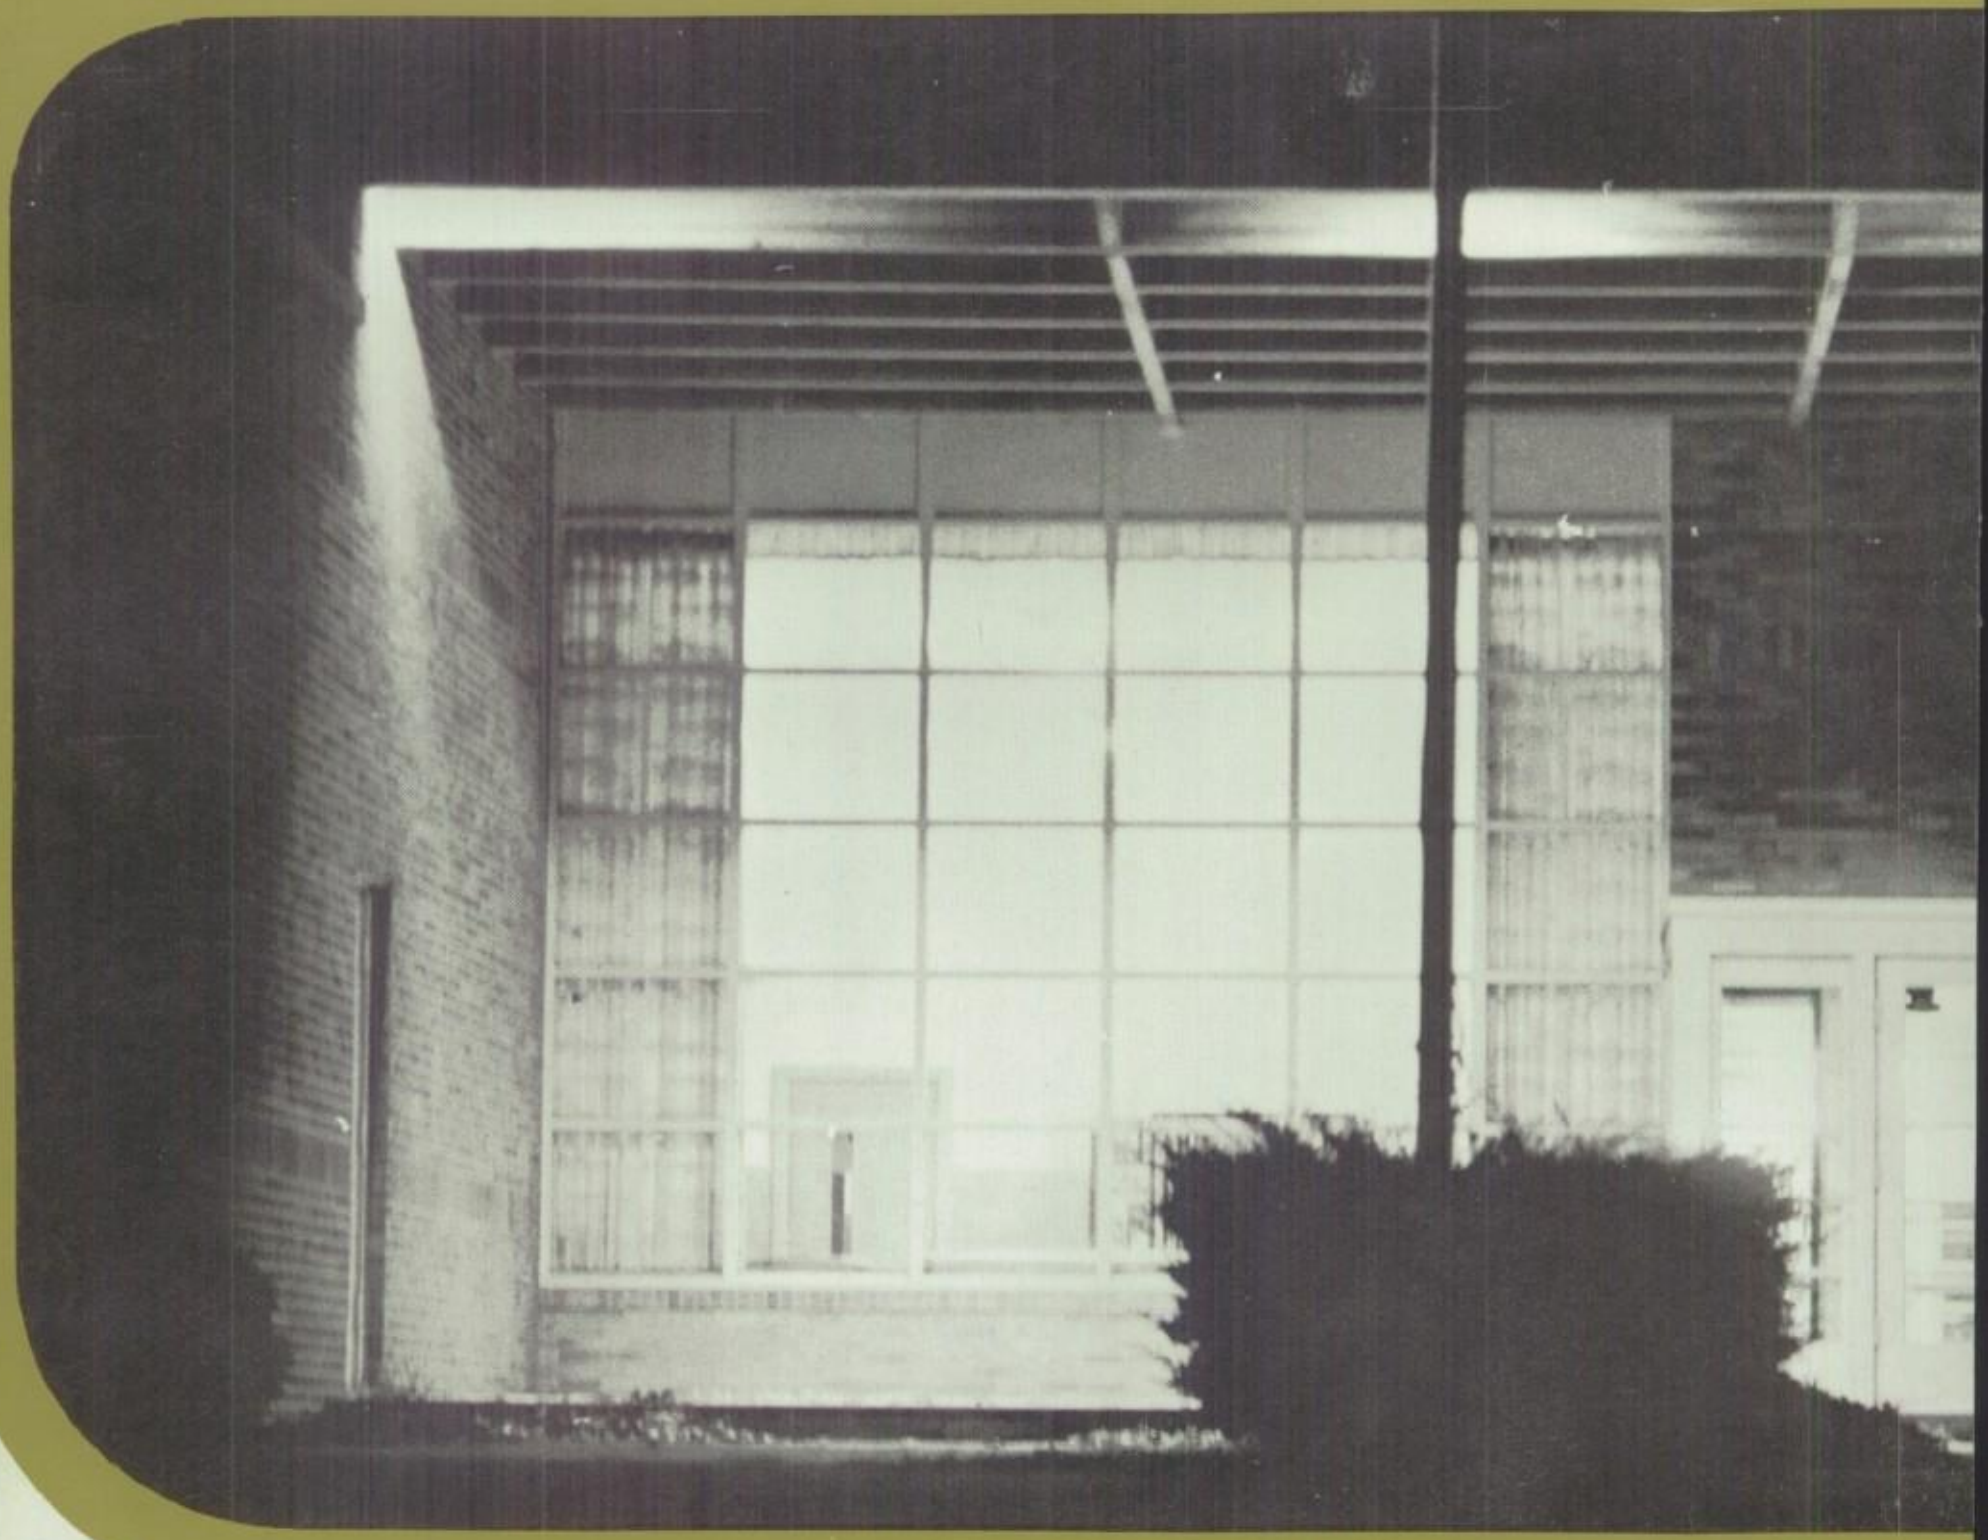
of 1964

Battle Creek Academy

Battle Creek, Michigan



It's only made of paint and nails
and nuts and bolts and beams,
Of wood and girders, steps with rails and bricks with mortared seams. . . .

Not to mention chairs and halls
and curtains, rods, and cords,
Nor leave out plaster, glue, and walls
as well as glass and boards.

And let us note the knobs and doors,
cement and steel and tiles,
The vast expanse of polished floors
and rows and rows of files.

But into these at last must come
God's breath of life, indeed
Completing education's sum and filling every need.

Foreword

Of all the rewards to be found on this old world, none can exceed the reward of service to others. In this, the Battle Creek Academy, we find teachers who are dedicated to this goal. It is little wonder then, that responsible citizens and service-minded individuals go out from this school each year. In their hands they carry the torch that God gave to the first pioneers of the Advent movement. There is no greater hover than to carry this torch with the flame that will burn forever. There is no greater privilege than to bear aloft the flame that will set the world on fire. It is for such a time as this that our school has come to the kingdom.

Dear Judy
My interest in your well-being has increased each year as it has been fun to see you develop into a very responsible miss of whom we are all proud. Sincerely, Mr. Zo

Heights

Every student today desires to attain high educational accomplishments so that he may keep up with the ever-changing world. No student should be content with past achievement but should surge ahead with integrity and determination to achieve, not only for himself but for the good of others that he may be of service wherever the Lord needs him.

Religion is not to be considered something dull and uninteresting but rather the very catalyst that can motivate us to achieve the highest intellectual and moral values.

This year has given us opportunity to expand our horizons, to enjoy one another's friendship, to become better acquainted with God. May the pages of this book continually remind us of the good we have accomplished, of the victories we have won, and the Christian fellowship which is above price.

My personal desire for each of you is to know our Master better, and though I shall be serving in a new field, I shall watch with interest the progress of each of you.

Dedication

Who can say how much good can be done by a God-fearing teacher? We can total up the score in young lives that have been forever changed by such a teacher? Who can recount the numerous occasions in which Christian discipline, tempered with love and understanding, has pointed a young life in the right direction? We cannot. But we do know a teacher who has rendered these immeasurable services. Her name is Dorothy Clark. She has served your young people in the elementary grades for nearly thirty years. We know her and we love her. It is to her that we humbly dedicate this annual.

It is the fondest wish of your Bacre Vie staff that the hours of thought and work put into this annual will be self-evident. As you leaf through these pages, we hope you will find that the paramount purpose of our school annual has been fulfilled. We trust that it will hold for you those fond memories and pleasant recollections which will make it a lasting memorial to the past school year.

The Young Family

There is a time to say "hello" and a time to say "goodbye" in the lives of all of us. Six years ago we said hello to Elder Stephen Young, his wife Bonnie, and their three girls, Joy, Toy, and Gay. This was the beginning of some of the best years ever seen by B. C. A. Not only have we seen a great improvement in our facilities, but we have also been witness to the most blessed growth of all. . . the spiritual growth of our young people. Spiritual growth doesn't just happen by itself any more than physical growth. If it is ill-fed or neglected it can die just as the body can die. We here at B. C. A. owe a debt of a large measure of our spiritual growth to a couple who have dedicated their lives to this end. It is a debt that we can never really repay. Elder and Mrs. Young have become parents in a sense to all the young lives they have touched here. It is because of their warmth, dedication, and responsibility toward their young friends here in this wonderful school, that their efforts have been so richly blessed. Now we must lose them to our brethren in Walla Walla. We know, because of the Godliness that has always been evident in their lives, that their success here will follow them wherever they go. There is a time to say "hello" and a time to say "goodbye." It is with sadness--but it is also with trust in the ultimate good of God's plans--that we bid a fond farewell to Elder Young and his charming family.

Provide Spiritual Growth in Our School

PILLARS OF POWER
was the theme of the student week of prayer given March 30 through April 3. In the morning and again each afternoon our fellow students brought thought-provoking talks to us.

Murray Stuck (at left), Terri Chucta, Don Wilson, Steve Howard, Lola Munson, and Bob Ruskjer spoke in the afternoon meeting.

The second Bible Camp sponsored by the Michigan Conf. MV Dept. was a thrilling experience for ten B. C. A. students. Three days at Camp Au Sable were filled with messages from many of our conference leaders. Eld. E. L. Minchin (extreme left) was one of the outstanding youth leaders who helped to send each individual from the five participating academics home on fire for Christ.

The Student Association Officers Worked together to Make

The purpose of the Student Association is to foster good school spirit, to promote training in citizenship, to provide a springboard for the other school organizations, and to maintain fellowship among the students while holding up our Christian standards.

"How many of you girls have ridden a horse before?" Horseback riding, swimming, and various parties occupied the girls of the Beta Gamma. This club, comprised of all the girls of the student body, is designed to foster Christian friendship and recreation. Much love and labor was bestowed on our poor family to give them a happier Christmas. A Valentine's party for the Vox Viri and a Mother-Daughter banquet tested the leadership of the officers.

Regular evenings for swimming were a real contribution to the success of the Vox Viri this year. The monumental task of putting on a banquet (Hawaiian style) for the girls' club served to unite the boys' club into an organized brotherhood. The annual overnight campout was looked forward to by all with great anticipation. All in all the Voice of Men speaks its pleasure at a year well spent.

Amateur Hour, this year entitled "Enchanted Forest," is an annual event at B. C. A. It is a round-up of all the finest talent in the school and much effort was put into it to make it one of the best programs of the year. One fine number was Teri Chucta's trombone solo, "Wild Rose Polka."

Grand prize winner, Eileen Moon, who played Chopin's "Minute Waltz," received her trophy.

SPORTS

Sports, Seniors VS Undergraduates

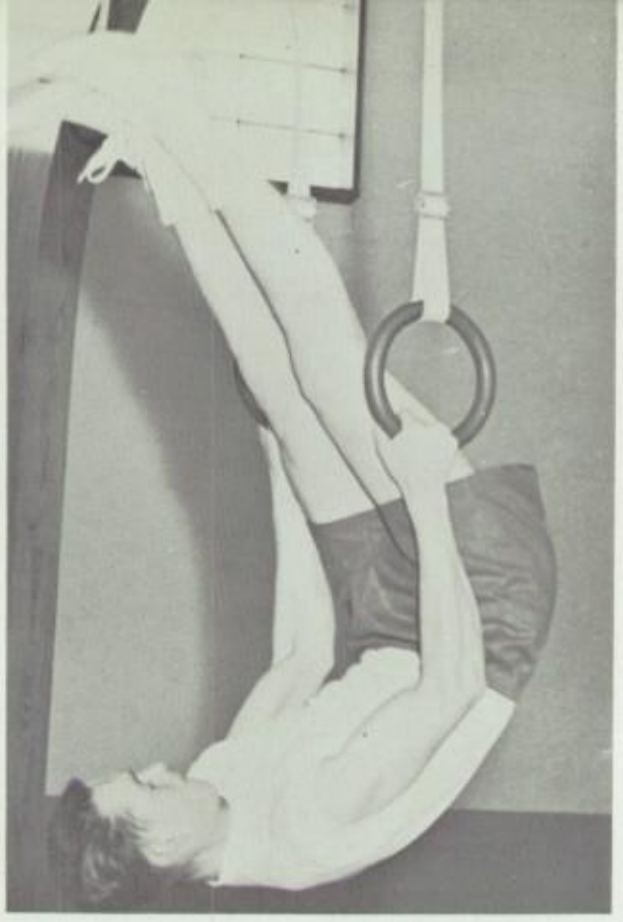
Senior quarterback Halsey moves with grace.

...and Crew

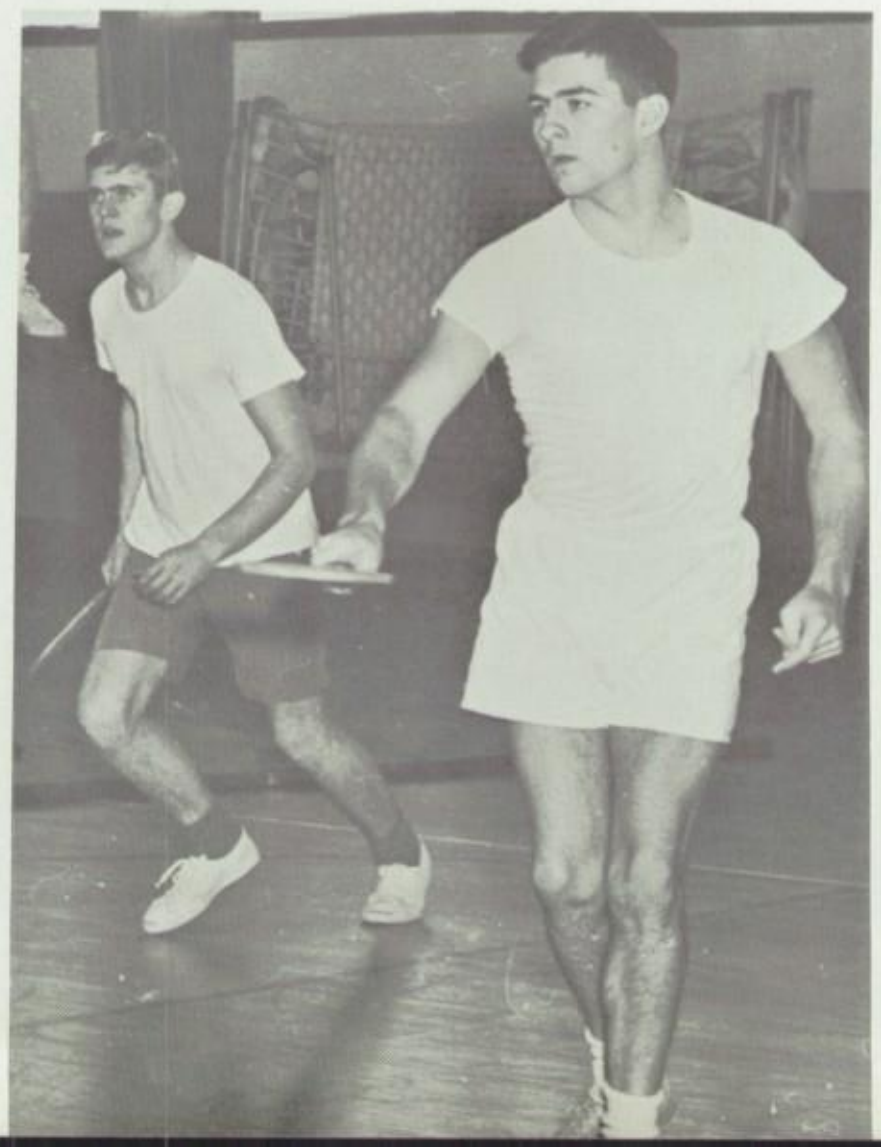
Piloting his hefty classmates to a bone-jarring 24-0 victory over the valiant undergraduates. Touchdowns were made by Jerry Stoudt and Steve Spruill, but the victory was earned by a rock-hard defensive unit. The undergraduates showed impressive speed and fine passing by their quarterback, Dwight Alger, but they lacked team organization. The hallmark of the game was the good sportsmanship with which it was played.

Seniors are in dark jerseys, undergraduates are in white jerseys.

Gym Sports



Climbing the rope is a demanding exercise--even so, most of the fellows in Mr. Bekowies' phys. ed. class can do it. Working out on the rings takes a certain amount of grace and balance, while climbing the pegboard requires the rare ability to support the entire body weight on one "locked" arm. There's nothing like a good basketball game to develop co-ordination and balance. We had two good, close seasons of basketball this year. The winners of the first season were Spruill's "Cats" and "Jacques' Spats" came out on top in the second season. In the bottom left corner you see our brand new traveling rings in active use. A rousing game of paddleball, the "game of the hour," is a pleasant form of recreation. "Bar dips" do wonders for the biceps and triceps. As you can see in these photos, the students of B. C. A. are grateful for a well-equipped gym and a fine phys. ed. program.



Echo Valley

Winter Sports

Echo Valley and our ski hill have been fine winter recreation areas over the years for us. Despite the rather snowless winter we spent this year, some still managed to find occasion for real fun on the ski slopes, the ice ponds, and the toboggan runs.
